Garrett Brodeur advises clients on a variety of complex civil tax controversy and litigation issues. With experience representing large U.S. and multinational companies and high-net-worth individuals, Mr. Brodeur routinely assists clients in navigating the audit, administrative proceeding and litigation phases of matters. In recognition of his work in tax law, Mr. Brodeur was named one of Best Lawyers' 2024 Ones To Watch in America.

He is an active member of the tax sections of the American Bar Association (ABA), the New York State Bar Association and the District of Columbia Bar, and routinely speaks as a panelist at ABA conferences and other organizations' events on issues relating to tax controversy. Mr. Brodeur serves in a variety of capacities in the ABA's Tax Section, including as chair of its Tax Practice & Technology Committee and a member of its Nominating Committee. He also was named a 2024-25 John S. Nolan Fellow and serves as a mentor for members of the Loretta Collins Argrett Diversity Fellowship program.

As part of his practice, Mr. Brodeur has worked on several pro bono matters, including drafting amici briefs for the U.S. Supreme Court, providing tax advice to community nonprofit organizations and serving as a volunteer attorney for unrepresented taxpayers before the U.S. Tax Court.
