Katja Butler is co-head of Skadden's U.K. corporate practice. She advises financial investor clients on all aspects of their investments, from initial acquisition to exit, and counsels on the execution of exit planning and co-investment terms.

Ms. Butler, who is a key partner in Skadden's London and European private equity practice, has been repeatedly ranked in Chambers UK for Private Equity: Buyouts and also has been named to Law.com International's list of Rising Stars, which recognises the U.K.'s top 25 up-and-coming women attorneys.

Ms. Butler is regularly rated as a Leading Individual by The Legal 500 UK, in which she has been described by clients as "fantastic," "always available" and "excellent to work with," and is one of a handful of attorneys recognised as Notable Practitioners for Private Equity and M&A in the IFLR1000 rankings. She also has been previously named Best in Private Equity by the Women in Business Law European Awards, one of Law360's Rising Stars in private equity and one of Legal Week's 40 Under 40: The Rising Stars In Private Equity. She also has been noted as a Female Future Leader by the Financial Times in its HERoes: Champions of Women in Business List.
