Helena Derbyshire has over 20 years of experience advising employers and senior executives on a wide range of employment issues, ranging from strategic advice on the labour law aspects of corporate transactions and business reorganisations, to the day-to-day employment matters faced by business managers.

Ms. Derbyshire works closely with our M&A and international labour and benefits teams and has extensive experience in:

- advising employers on restructuring and reorganising their workforce
- addressing the employment issues arising in the context of the acquisition or disposal of a business, including particular experience on the application of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations (TUPE) and collective consultation requirements across Europe
- employment advice related to cross-border transactions and coordination of international advisers
- collective bargaining and industrial actions
- the TUPE issues arising in outsourcing transactions
- advising on employee retention, including drafting and negotiating senior executives' service agreements
- advising on, drafting and enforcing post-termination restrictions
- managing executive dismissals, including the negotiation of severance terms and defending employment-related claims
- discrimination law, including drafting and advising on effective equality, gender pay gap and flexible working policies and practices
- data protection issues in relation to the personal data of U.K.-based employees
- training clients on employment issues, such as the application of TUPE, GDPR, discipline and grievances, and equality

Relevant matters include:

- coordinating employment due diligence, consultation and treatment of benefits, ensuring the smooth transition of employees on numerous cross-border acquisitions for clients, including: Adevinta AS on its acquisition of the eBay classifieds business and subsequent integration across Europe; Corporation Service Company in its US$2 billion acquisition of Intertrust N.V.; Convera in connection with the US$910 million acquisition of Western Union Business Solutions; Visa Inc. in its US$2.2 billion acquisition of Tink AB; Nikkei Inc's acquisition of the Financial Times; Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance's acquisition of Amlin plc; XL Inc's takeover of Catlin Limited; CME's takeover of NEX plc; the creation of Janus Henderson; Ball Corporation's related takeover of Rexam plc and a divestiture to Ardagh; Vantiv's takeover of Worldpay plc; Coty's divestiture of its professional hair care business to a joint venture with KKR; and the EG Group and TDR's acquisition of ASDA
