Jessica Hough, global head of the firm's regulatory practices, represents clients on a wide range of tax matters, with particular emphasis on mergers, acquisitions and divestiture transactions, including spin-offs, debt and equity offerings, corporate and partnership restructurings, and joint ventures.

While Ms. Hough has a broad-based M&A tax practice across various industries, she also advises clients in the financial services sector on insurance-related corporate transactions, including capital raising, mergers and acquisitions, reinsurance transactions, restructurings and related matters. She has extensive experience in the U.S. and international insurance and reinsurance industries, having represented numerous industry participants in all lines of business, including life, health, property and casualty, and specialty lines.

In addition to her thriving practice, Ms. Hough is very active in promoting diversity in the legal profession and serves as a member of Skadden's Policy Committee, the firm's governing body. She co-chaired the ABA Tax Section Diversity Committee and is a recipient of the Nolan Fellowship, which is awarded to young lawyers who are actively involved in the section and have shown leadership qualities. She also was a fellow in the inaugural Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Fellows Program, for which she mentors incoming minority students at law schools in Washington, D.C. A frequent author and speaker on a wide range of tax matters, Ms. Hough has been repeatedly selected for inclusion in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business, The Legal 500 U.S. and Best Lawyers in America. In 2022, she was named one of Savoy magazine's Most Influential Black Lawyers, as well as included in Expert Guides' Guide to the World's Leading Tax Advisers. She also has been recognized by the International Tax Review as its North America Tax Practice Leader of the Year and in its World Tax guide, as well as by Law360 as one of its Tax MVPs and one of its Influential Women in Tax Law.
