Orla McMahon has broad U.S. and cross-border mergers and acquisitions experience, encompassing both public and private acquisitions, dispositions, co-investments and joint ventures. She also advises clients on corporate governance, U.S. securities laws, compliance and other general corporate matters. Ms. McMahon's practice focuses primarily on representing public companies in connection with their public and private mergers and acquisitions and U.S. securities laws matters. In recognition of her work in M&A, she has been named a Notable Practitioner by IFLR1000.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. McMahon was an associate in the Paris, New York and London offices of a large New York-headquartered law firm. She also served as a law clerk (stagiaire) to Irish Judge Anthony M. Collins at the General Court of the Court of Justice of the European Union in Luxembourg in 2014.

At Skadden, Ms. McMahon's representations include advising:

- International Paper in its proposed $9.9 billion acquisition of DS Smith
- RMG Acquisition Corp. III, a Nasdaq-listed special purpose acquisition company, in connection with its announced business combination with H2B2 Electrolysis Technologies, Inc., a global green hydrogen platform that provides integrated solutions across the hydrogen value chain (pending)
- Nokia Corporation in connection with the sale of its VitalQIP business to Cygna Labs
