Demitrios T. Moustakis represents issuers, underwriters, placement agents, lenders, agents, managers of tactical credit and other types of investment funds, collateral managers, investors and other participants in a variety of public and private structured finance transactions.

Mr. Moustakis' structured finance experience includes advising on credit card, equipment lease, auto loan, consumer loan, trade and other receivables financings; collateralized loan obligation transactions; financings of investment funds; whole business securitizations; securitizations of solar assets (including commercial and industrial solar assets); auctions of financial assets; and asset-backed commercial paper transactions. He also has counseled on traditional corporate finance transactions, including with respect to commercial paper programs, factoring transactions, supply chain financings, back-leverage facilities and other lending transactions.

In recognition of his work, Mr. Moustakis has been named one of Best Lawyers' Ones To Watch.
