Patrick G. Rideout represents a broad spectrum of U.S. and international clients in a wide variety of complex corporate, commercial, real estate and securities disputes in federal and state courts, as well as arbitration and expert proceedings. Mr. Rideout has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in a broad array of matters, including claims for breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty and tortious interference, as well as violations of civil RICO, New York's General Business Law and other statutes. In addition, Mr. Rideout has extensive experience advising private equity and public company clients in connection with contract negotiation and drafting, as well as post-closing purchase price adjustment disputes in litigation and proceedings before independent accounting experts.

Mr. Rideout routinely represents clients in arbitration proceedings and has a breadth of experience in all phases of arbitration, including full evidentiary hearings, successful dispositive motions and successful disqualification motions, as well as proceedings in state and federal trial and appellate courts to compel or enjoin arbitrations and to enforce orders of arbitral tribunals.

Representative clients include The Blackstone Group; Capital One; Christie's, Inc.; Citibank, N.A.; Credit Acceptance Corporation; Deutsche Bank, A.G.; Fortis Advisors, LLC; Fortress Investment Group, LLC; Further Global Capital Management, L.P.; JLL Partners; Johnson & Johnson, Inc.; the National Hockey League; Pamplona Capital Management; Perella Weinberg Partners; Permira Advisers LLC; the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey; SanDisk Corporation; Terex Corporation; Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.; WeWork Companies Inc.; Whitestone Home Furnishings, LLC; and Yahoo! Inc.

Mr. Rideout has been honored for his outstanding pro bono service in connection with his representation of missing child Patrick Alford, Jr., in the pending Section 1983 litigation in the Eastern District of New York, captioned P.A., Jr. v. City of New York, et al., 10-cv-4661.

Mr. Rideout is a long-standing member of the firm's Hiring Committee and previously served as hiring partner for Skadden's New York office, co-chaired the Summer Associate Committee and oversaw training for the firm's Complex Litigation and Trials Group and Summer Associate Litigation Training Program.

Since 2009, Mr. Rideout has been the Website Subcommittee Chair for the Securities Litigation Committee of the American Bar Association, Section of Litigation.
