Nick Wolfe advises on all aspects of EU, U.K. and international competition law, including merger control, compliance with Articles 101 and 102, and State aid.

Mr. Wolfe regularly represents clients before the European Commission, the U.K. Competition and Markets Authority and major antitrust regulators around the world. His experience covers a wide range of sectors, including financial services, manufacturing, technology and media, among others. In recognition of his work, he has been repeatedly named to Who's Who Legal: Competition. Prior to practicing law, he worked as a financial services regulator in London.

Mr. Wolfe's merger control experience includes advising:

- Spirit AeroSystems Holdings, Inc. in its proposed US$8.3 billion acquisition by The Boeing Company
- International Paper Company in its US$9.9 billion acquisition of DS Smith Plc
- Kaman Corporation in its US$1.8 billion going-private acquisition by Arcline Investment Management LP
